Multimedia Publication

I have directed the construction and update of these electronic resources:

2021–2022

Website: Patrick Manning, world historian <https://patrickmanningworldhistorian.com>.

2006–2017

These websites are administered by CSSD at the University of Pittsburgh and are maintained by the staff of the University Library System.

Website: Patrick Manning manning.pitt.edu (2013–18). Personal website.

Website: “Alliance for Learning in World History” www.alliance.pitt.edu (2014–16)

Website: “Journal of World-Historical Information.” <http://www.jwhi.pitt.edu> (2013–18). Journal of the Collaborative for Historical Information and Analysis.

Website: “Collaborative for Historical Information and Analysis (CHIA)” chia.pitt.edu (2012–16). Site of the collaborative project for creation of a world-historical archive.

Website: “World-Historical Dataverse—the universe of world-historical data,” www.dataverse.pitt.edu (2009–16). Website of the University of Pittsburgh group working to prepare global historical statistics for the period since 1600.

Website: “World History Center.” www.worldhistory.pitt.edu (2008–2015). Official site of the World History Center at the University of Pittsburgh.

Prior to 2006

CD-ROM: Migration in Modern World History (Belmont, CA: Wadsworth Thomson Learning, 2000). An educational CD-ROM, for which I was project director. It contains 400 documents, 60,000 words of narrative, and 1001 questions.

Website: “World History Network,” www.worldhistorynetwork.org (2004–2013). I directed the production and maintenance of materials for this comprehensive gateway to world history on the Internet, supported by the National Endowment for the Humanities.

Website: “Demographic Simulation of Migration,” www.worldhistorynetwork.migrationsim. I directed work on this site from 1997 to 2008. It displayed simulation of the demography of the Atlantic slave trade, comparing it with the demography of European trans-Atlantic migration.

Website: “World History Center,” www.worldhistorycenter.org. I directed work on this large site 1996–2004; it remains online as an archive. Its focus is on research, multimedia production, curriculum development, and professional development in world history.
